PROCLAMATIONS.

May 28, 1915.—Ordering the closing of the public bar in the King George Hotel at Loreburn, Saskatchewan, in respect of which license was granted to Benjamin Levin, and the suspension of the license for the sale of intoxicating liquors held in respect of such bar or other premises granted to the said Benjamin Levin.

May 31, 1915.—Extending for a further period of six months, the provisions of the Proclamation of the nineteenth day of November, 1914, which were made for the conduct of certain extra-judicial seizures and subsequent sale of goods seized.

May 31, 1915.—Cancelling Proclamation of March 27, 1915, which provided for the protection of liquor licensees.

June 2, 1915.—Cancelling Proclamation of May 28, 1915, which ordered the closing of the public bar in the King George Hotel at Loreburn, Saskatchewan, the provisions thereof to have no force or effect on, from and after the fifth day of June, 1915.

August 9, 1915.—Providing for the protection of the property and interests of debtors of all classes, including volunteers and reservists.

August 21, 1915.—Varying the provisions in the Act and various Proclamations mentioned therein with reference to the protection of property owned bona fide by volunteers who have and may join the Forces.

August 25, 1915.—Revoking Proclamation of August 9, 1915, in so far as it relates to lien agreements given to or in favour of a Municipality for Seed Grain supplied by such Municipality under the authority of The Municipalities Seed Grain Act, being chapter 31 of the Statutes of Saskatchewan, 1912, as amended by chapter 47 of the Statutes of 1913, and chapter 43 of the Statutes of 1915.

August 31, 1915.—Proclaiming that on, from and after the fifteenth day of September, 1915, Part 3 of The Sales of Liquor Act, being chapter 39 of the Statutes of Saskatchewan, 1915, shall become and be in force.

September 1, 1915.—Revoking clauses 10, 11 and 12 of the Proclamation of the ninth day of August, 1915, with regard to the seizure and sale of certain kinds of personal property under chattel mortgages or bills of sale intended to operate as mortgages, conditional sales, lien agreements or hire receipts, and substituting new clauses therefor.

September 18, 1915.—Repealing section 6 of The Stock Inspection Act dealing with the inspection of stock, on, from and after the first of October, 1915, in so far as all but certain areas in the province are concerned, and that the inspection of stock by stock inspectors be restricted to the said areas.

October 12, 1915.—Extending the provisions of Proclamation of the twenty-first day of August, 1915, which provided for the protection of property of volunteers, for a further period of six months.

October 18, 1915.—Appointment of Richard Stuart Lake as Lieutenant Governor of Saskatchewan.

November 12 1915.—Suspending the operation of all sections of The Game Act that deal with the hunting of game birds and big game for the purpose of food, but not for purposes of sale, barter or traffic, in so far as they affect residents of that portion of Saskatchewan north of the line between townships 56 and 57; such suspension to be effective from December 1, 1915, to April 30, 1916.

November 16, 1915.—Revoking Proclamations of August 9, 1915, August 25, 1915, and September 1, 1915, having reference to the seizure and sale of certain kinds of personal property.

December 7, 1915.—Convening the Fifth Session of the Third Legislative Assembly of the Province of Saskatchewan at Regina, on Tuesday, the eighteenth day of January, 1916.

December 7, 1915.—Amending Proclamation of November 5, 1914, which declared that portion of the province lying north of the fifty-fifth township to be prohibition territory, by inserting after clause 10 thereof, a new clause numbered "10a."

January 7, 1916.—Withdrawing Proclamation of October 12, 1915, and proclaiming that the protection granted to the property and interests of volunteers and reservists, be extended to the property and interest of their wives also, and unless the context otherwise requires, the expressions "volunteer" and "reservist" in this Proclamation include the wife of a volunteer or reservist, as the case may be.

January 28, 1916.—Withdrawing Proclamations of October 12, 1915, and January 7, 1916, with reference to the protection of property of volunteers and reservists.

March 7, 1916.—Appointing Honourable Edward Ludlow Wetmore, William Ethelbert Mason, and Herbert Gerveys Smith, as Commissioners to inquire into and report on all contracts or pretended contracts for roads on which payments were made during the years 1913, 1914, 1915 and 1916.

March 23, 1916.—Extending provisions of Proclamation of November 5, 1914, with reference to the cancellation of agreements for sale, to the end of the present war and for a certain period thereafter; same to come into force on the second day of April, 1916.

April 17, 1916.—Appointing Honourable Edward Ludlow Wetmore, Herbert Gerveys Smith, and George Douglas Mackie, as Commissioners to inquire into and report on all contracts or pretended contracts for roads on which payments were made during the years 1913, 1914, 1915 and 1916 and cancelling the Commission of March 7, 1916.

April 25, 1916.—Repealing that portion of The Stock Inspection Act, dealing with the inspection of stock before shipment, in all portions of the Province of Saskatchewan, with the exception of certain mentioned areas.

April 27, 1916.—Setting aside Sunday, the twenty-eighth day of May, 1916, as a Saskatchewan Go-to-Sunday-School Day.
